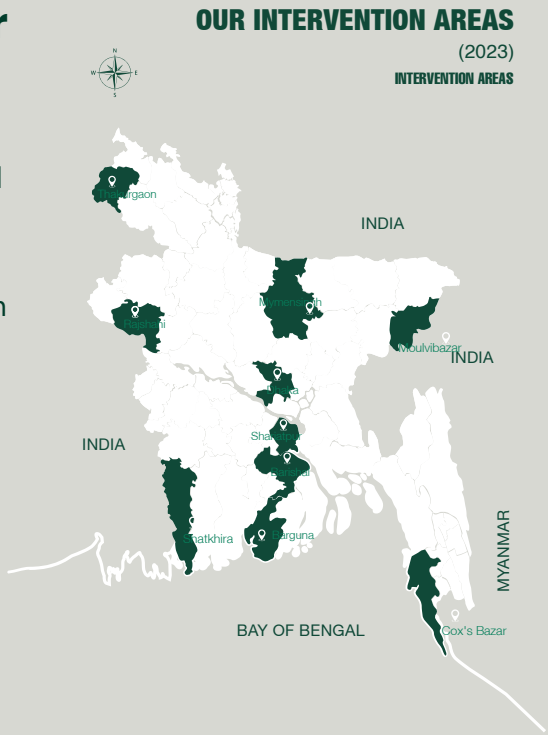
Child labour programming of Educo Bangladesh

Brief about Educo and Child Labour Program:

Education and Development Foundation-Educo is a global development and humanitarian organization based in Barcelona, Spain and with over 30-years' experience working in 14 countries in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Europe. Since 1999, Educo Bangladesh works with children and their environment to promote just and equitable societies that guarantee their rights and well-being. Currently, we have been implementing Bangladesh programs in 10 districts in partnership with 15 local NGOs for ensuring localization and sustainability under three broader strategic priorities of Education, Protection and Governance. We have strong existence in the Rohingya camps since 2019.



Major Interventions:

- Provide basic education.
- Vocational training and decent job placement.
- Awareness raising at local and national level.
- Advocacy with government and policy.

Key achievements:

- 1690 working children are currently receiving primary education.
- 172 adolescents have received vocational training (2018 to 2022). Among them, 83 adolescents placed in either decent job or entrepreneurship.
- 300 working children under ODHIKAR project received primary education and among them 175 were mainstreamed in different schools.
- Several research/studies (6 studies) contributed to evidence- based advocacy at national level.
- More than 1,800 working children have been withdrawn from hazardous workplaces (2000 to 2022).
- Around 1,500 working children have completed primary education and mainstreamed in secondary schools in the urban areas of Dhaka (2000-2020) under 5 working children schools.
